

GREAT LEAGUE PLAYERS ARE TO BE SEEN HERE ON FRIDAY

Forty-seven Men Who Stand at the Head of the National Game Are to Give an Exhibition at Glenwood Park—Large Crowd Expected to Turn Out to Greet the Champions.

With the exception of a small amount of work to be done on the Glenwood park baseball grounds, Secretary Angus Kennedy of the Ogden Baseball club, announced today, all arrangements have been made for the exhibition game to be played in Ogden at 2 p. m. Friday of this week by the all-star teams of the National and American leagues.

All of the railroads operating into Ogden have announced special excursion rates for the contest, on account of interest manifested by baseball fans in the surrounding towns. It is expected that a big crowd will greet the major league players when they get in action.

Owing to the early fall of evening, the game will begin at 2 o'clock. This announcement was made yesterday evening by President A. P. Bigelow of the Ogden Baseball club, who also stated that the prices of admission would be 50 cents for the bleacher seats, 75 cents for automobiles and $1 for the grandstand. These prices, it is said, are much lower than charged in a number of cities where the all-stars have played.

Part of the proceeds will go to pay old debts of the Ogden club in the Union association, and a great crowd should turn out to see the top-notchers in baseball and to aid the local backers of the national game. The exhibition will be a lively contest between the opposing sides.

There are forty-seven players in the party, including Alexander and other stars of the diamond.

Hinkley is wanted in the Idaho city for alleged forgery. He is a well known character and it was only recently that he was released from the state penitentiary.

Ex-Mayor William Glasman received many congratulations from friends for the part he played in the campaign but he was not inclined to take the credit to himself. He said to his friends: "I think you had better congratulate the city."

Last evening J. S. Campbell, the defeated candidate, graciously acknowledged defeat and congratulated Mr. Heywood on a bulletin flashed from the Standard window.

"THE CALLING OF DAN MATHEWS" A GOOD SHOW

The story of a young preacher and his many complicated problems is "The Calling of Dan Mathews," dramatized by Harold Bell Wright and Elsbeth W. Reynolds, from Mr. Wright's most popular and best selling novel. The scenes of the play are laid in the Middle West, and its familiar situations will be found very interesting to every auditor.

It is a play that is bound to create a great deal of comment, just as the book from which it was dramatized did. The story is said to be more forcefully brought out by the actor than it was in cold type. Mr. Wright has a happy faculty of drawing true characters, and this is especially true in "The Calling of Dan Mathews."

The people seemed to have stepped right out from among our personal acquaintances and we feel like reaching over the footlights and grasping their hands.

In the district court Lovina W. Rosenthine commenced suit against the Mathews & McCullough real estate company et al. to have cancelled a certain warranty deed, drawn in favor of Frank D. Smith. The complaint relates that the deed was written June 15, 1915, and signed by her husband, Anthony Rosenthine, without authority, claiming that the property belongs to her and that she never authorized the issuance of the deed. The plaintiff seeks to have the deed cancelled and declared void, also asking damages in the sum of $500.

A new schedule has been arranged for the Orpheum commencing next week the Alhambra will present the Orpheum vaudeville two days matinee daily on Thursdays and Fridays in order to give the show time to reach Salt Lake for the Sunday matinee; as the Alhambra has a seating capacity of 2,500, which will accommodate 10,000 patrons during the vaudeville engagement, Ogden is allotted the same number of shows as given Colorado Springs. The complete Orpheum show will be given without cutting an act. Valeska Suratt, the highest salaried star on the circuit, will lead next week's bill; Lynden, Doll & Co. will lead this week's program. ## WORKING ON THE NEW LINE FROM OGDEN TO HARRISVILLE

Superintendent Warren L. Wattis of the Utah Construction company states that the grading for the Ogden-Harrisville cutoff on the Ogden-Logan & Idaho electric railway, will be completed in about ten days. Progress in grading has been rather slow on account of the wet condition of the ground. It is now planned to lay the ties and rails and then haul dry earth from other parts to build up the grade to the proper level.

The cutoff extends from Lincoln avenue and Seventeenth street, on a direct line to Harrisville, parallel to the Oregon Short Line road. It covers a distance of about four miles and will save about one mile. It will shorten the running time at least 8 minutes.

MUNSING WEAR

UNION SUITS

FIT—perfect fit—do you know what it means in underwear—especially union suits?

We believe that Munsingwear union suits will give you a new idea of underwear fit.

The way they cover the form—with-out gaping at the seat—the manner in which they give and take with every twist of the body and every contraction of the muscles—without binding at the crotch—has been a surprise and delight to millions.

Munsingwear fit is one of the distinct features that explain the annual sales of over 9,000,000 Munsingwear garments—and the ever increasing demand from millions of satisfied users.

And the beauty of the Munsingwear fit is that it doesn't wash out.

The comfort of Munsingwear fit is further increased by softness of the elastic Munsingwear yarns, the smooth seams, the perfect crotch and perfectly balanced gore in the seat.

The prices of Munsingwear garments are very moderate—much less, perhaps, than you imagine for such fine quality. The range of fabrics, styles and weights is very wide. They are made for men, women and children.

There is a correct-fitting Munsingwear garment for you in any style, weight or fabric desired. Ask us to show you.

FIRST MEATLESS DAY IN GERMANY

Restaurants Specialize in Fish Courses and Omelets in Varieties.

Berlin, Nov. 2, via London, Nov. 3, 2:20 a. m.—Berlin on its first "meatless day" adapted itself with comparative ease and little grumbling to the new regulation. The affect of the sudden change from a meat to a fish or vegetable diet lessened materially the amount of food usually consumed, which was precisely the aim of the authorities. It is predicted, however, that the consumption will mount when the public adjusts itself to conditions and acquires new tastes.

Many of the larger popular restaurants specialized in fish courses, others offered omelets in countless varieties, although cold meats may be eaten. The public showed disinclination to avail itself of them at the heavy noon meal, but waited until supper time.

The scheme is seemingly less successful with that portion of the public which eats at home. The butcher shops on Monday evening were crowded and lines of people stood outside for hours with the intention of buying in advance enough meat to last until Wednesday. Many stores were completely sold out.

The newspapers issue warnings that such tactics on the part of the public will only result in a shortage and increased prices, which the regulations are intended to prevent.
